

Time per call, by kind of function

Logarithmic. A bar at the bottom of the scale is at or below 0.01 ms, which is the tick resolution rather than a measurement. Case 01 is the empty control and is subtracted from every other bar, so it has none.

Working memory used, by kind of function

